

SOLAR FIRE INTERPRETATIONS REPORT

The Charubel Degrees

(c) Charubel's Degrees are taken from the book "The Degrees of the Zodiac Symbolised" taken from the Astrology Classics edition of 2004, Bel Air.

When a family, or community, leaves one country and migrates to another, they take with them their traditions. These traditional roots are firmly planted in the new land. Oftentimes the traditions in the new country far outlive the ones in the old one. In fact "back home" becomes an illusion, because life has gone on and traditions have changed. Change in the "new" country is required. Nevertheless the roots of the traditions can be rich and much can be learnt from them. In the same way mystic Charubel's degree interpretations can be viewed. Charubel is the professional name for Welsh occultist, clairvoyant and healer John Thomas. First published in the 1890s these degree interpretations are extremely fatalistic. Many of the degrees have dire interpretations and these should be used for academic purposes not for clients. Since Charubel wrote his degree interpretations astrology, and the world in general, has changed and grown. In the light of the modern day his degrees are harsh. Nevertheless there is astrological information to be gleaned from his insights. Thus the creators of Solar Fire thank the publishers of the book "The Degrees of the Zodiac Symbolised" for giving their blessing on the inclusion of these writings in our software."
